A RECENT issue of a Russian newspaper contained nothing but advertisements and the following: "Through a cause not our own, the original articles prepared for this issue cannot be published, therefore we publish only advertisements."

THE REV. E. P. ADAMS, convicted of heresy by the Buffalo Presbytery for refusing to accept the Evangelical dogma of endless damnation, said to the tribunal that the dogma of election and reprobation were as binding as the first named, although obsolete, ignored and practically repudiated by the clergy.

ONE of the best arguments for voting the democratic ticket in North Carolina is contained in the following brief paragraph found in the Winston Leader, of that state: "Ten years ago, when the republicans had possession of the state government, the tax was 77 cents on the $100 worth of property. Last year the democrats controlled the legislature and the tax was 24 cents."

THE TELEGRAPH failed to bring the news of the death of Judge Henry M. Spofford, of Louisiana, who died on the 20th of August. His body was taken from New Orleans to Cincinnati, where the funeral was held, when the remains were conveyed to Paducah, Tennessee, for interment. In 1877 Judge Spofford was elected to the United States Senate from Louisiana, receiving the almost unanimous vote of both parties in the legislature. It will be remembered that Wm. Pitt Kellogg had been previously elected by the bogus legislature. The Senate permitted Kellogg to take the seat, and Judge Spofford's contest is still pending. Spofford was 59 years of age. He was a graduate of Amherst College, and since 1840 has been a resident of New Orleans. For years he was on the supreme bench of Louisiana, and was counted one of the ablest jurists in the country. His death will probably leave Kellogg in the Senate until the expiration of the term, March 4th, 1883.

THE NEW YORK Times, in a recent issue gives some interesting statistics and particulars concerning railroad building in the United States, giving a concise history of the business from its inception to the present time. In 1830 the number of miles of road in operation in this country was only 23, but the increase has been rapid up to the present time, and is still going on. In 1831, 72 miles were built. In 1841, 717 miles were built, which was the largest annual construction down to 1849, when the number (1,309) first reached 1,000. Thenceforward until the rebellion the increase annually was between 1,000 and 2,000 miles, except in 1853, (2,452), 1856, (8,647), and 1857 and 1858, (2,047 and 2,405). A set-back was given by 1857 to railroad expansion, which had been large for eight years, the miles in operation having grown from 5,996 at the end of 1848 to 32,016 at the end of 1856; then there was a decline until 1861, when (for obvious reasons) construction dropped to 651 miles, and reached 1,000 in only one (1863) of the war years. With 1865 the process took a new start. In 1869 it reached 4,615 miles, passing 1856, hitherto the year of maximum growth; 1871 showed 7,379, which is still unequalled; 1872 showed the beginning of a decline, 5,878 miles; 1873, 4,107 miles; 1875 was the year of lowest recession. Now the development is increasing, 4,731 miles having been built last year. This is the largest since 1872, and is surpassed only by the three years 1870-72. The present total in operation—39,500—is not far short of the total in Europe—93,800. The total in the six middle states—16,680—is nearly equal to the 17,092 in Great Britain and Ireland. New England is almost stationary in this respect, having built only 30 miles in 1879. Vermont, New Jersey, Delaware, Alabama, Indian Territory, Wyoming and Washington alone show literally no progress. The six middle states show 253 miles; the ten southern states built 314 miles; the three Pacific states, with Arizona and Washington, built 321 miles; the western states, of course, show the bulk of growth, having built 3,881 miles. This term is quite broad, covering six of the territories, with Texas and snub states as Ohio, Indiana, and the nearer northwest. Illinois and Ohio, new well marked over by rail, built 180 and 370 miles in 1879; Michigan, 80; Indiana, 138; Missouri, 454; Wisconsin, 478; Iowa, 623; Kansas, 676. The bulk of present and (probably) of future railroad building for a dozen years to come is, and will be, in those states, with Dakota, which built only 80 miles in 1879, but is, perhaps, yet to be important in this particular. How far railroad building is to go, and whether it will again escape beyond the control of the brakes of reason and prudence, nobody can predict. But Americans have short memories in finance as well as in politics, and certainly, some important conditions—easy money, scarcity and high price of good securities, low interest, reviving business and increased earnings on existing roads—are eminently favorable for the recurrence of a railroad era.

OLD BEN TOOMBS, of Georgia, is generally wild and foolish in his political utterances, and seems to have "broken out in a fresh spot" over the present campaign. He manages to have his sayings well reported in the newspapers, the political organs now-days containing something from him in pretty nearly every issue. One of his latest speeches is reported as follows: "We cannot put in one of our own men this time, and have to take a 'Yank.' This being the case, let us take one who is less 'blue-bellied' than the most of them. You may depend upon it, sir, that 'Yank' or no 'Yank,' if elected, the old boys of the south will see that Hancock does the fair thing by them. In other words, he will run the machine to suit them or they will run the thing themselves." General Toombs will probably not forget, this side of the grave, that a war was waged in this country a few years ago, which permanently settled some questions which he persists in keeping unsettled.

THE CONGREGATION of the Roman Catholic church in West Philadelphia on a recent Sunday were startled by the public denunciation from the altar of a Dr. James Welsh, who, for the purpose of drawing patients, had announced that he was a priest. The denunciation was made on the authority of Archbishop Wood. Dr. Welsh had impressed the credulous as possessing miraculous powers.

LAST YEAR Louisiana produced $20,000,000 worth of sugar. This looks as if material prosperity had not departed from the south.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Tammany Yields. New York, 31.—For the purpose of uniting, harmonizing and consolidating the democracy, the Kelly state committee, chosen at Shakespeare Hall, Syracuse, on the 20th of April, revoked its call for a state convention, and ratified the call of the Faulkner state committee for a convention at Saratoga Springs, on September 28th.

No performance was given at the Grand Opera House on Monday night, owing to the inability of Emmett to appear.

Indian Outbreak Near the Utah Line.

Denver, Colo., 31.—Geo. Atwood, arrived in Oquirrh last night, reports an Indian outbreak in the Grand Valley in the Southern and White River Utes, Pikes and Navajos are concerned. On the 29th inst. they attacked three Wilson boys, cattle herders, 130 miles west of Oquirrh and six miles inside the Utah line. Two of the boys were killed, the other making his escape with a wounded foot. The inhabitants of Grand Valley, Plainfield and Blue Mountains have massed at Sierra Lasalle, and notified all outposts by runners.

Heaps of Republican Slush.

Chicago, 30.—Inter-Ocean's Washington: The republican congressional committee is sending out documents at the rate of 300,000 per day. There is a demand for campaign literature never known before. There is going through press, to-day, a document that, after it has done its work as a campaign document, will take a place among our works of literature. It is a handsome twenty-four-page pamphlet entitled "Garfield's Maxims," and contains epigrammatic sayings culled from all his speeches on various topics, under appropriate classifications. A specimen is the saying, "A pound of pluck is worth a ton of luck." The first edition will be 100,000 copies.

A Heavy Storm.

Richmond, Va., 31.—This city was visited last night by one of the fiercest storms ever known in this section. For two hours therein fell in torrents, accompanied by almost incessant thunder and lightning. The rush of water in the streets was so great that Shocks Creek, in the lower part of the city, was swollen into an angry torrent, which overflowed its banks and flooded the whole vicinity. Many houses were filled, and buildings bordering the creek inundated. The occupants, mostly colored, were awakened by a rush of water into their houses. The scene in the neighborhood of the swollen stream was terrible. Women and children were at the window holding lamps and screaming for help. The night was pitchy dark and often cries were heard from points where no one could be seen. Men waded about in the water saving the lives of members of their families, while their property was being washed away. Merchants also sustained considerable loss by the flooding of cellars in other parts of the city. The streets were badly washed and several bridges in the suburbs were swept away. Lightning struck in several places, but no serious damage was done. No loss of life yet reported. The storm covered an extensive area of country and did some damage.

New York, 30.—The equipment is ordered to-morrow of the forty-two life saving stations along the New Jersey coast, a more regular than usual, because of prediction of unusually heavy gales. Some 250 men compose the life-saving patrol.

Norfolk, 31.—The Norfolk Knitting and Cotton Manufacturing Company's factory, burned. Loss, $50,000; partly insured.

Philadelphia, 31.—The coins at the mint during August is valued at $2,496,800; 36,400 eagles, 63,200 half eagles, 1,100,000 silver dollars, and the remainder cents.

Washington, 31.—It is estimated that the receipts for August will aggregate $30,600,000; expenses, $16,500,000, exclusive of the interest on the public debt, which is light.

Washington, 31.—The acting secretary of the treasury estimates that the decrease in the debt, for August, will be over $11,500,000.

Criminal Occurrences and Casualties.

Detroit, 31.—John Hamilton, a wealthy farmer of Iowa, was shot and instantly killed by his nephew, last night. Hamilton was 76 years old, and Wm. H. McKenny, his assailant, is but 18. Hamilton is wealthy and resides in Brooklyn, N. Y. The boy wanted to become a farmer, and his father brought him west to spend the summer at his uncle's. He remained there till a few weeks ago, when he became dissatisfied and went to a neighboring village to work in a mill. At his settlement with Hamilton's son, $18 was due him, and procuring a lively rig, last evening, he drove to the farm for young Hamilton. Not being at home, he demanded the money of his uncle, who told him his son would settle as soon as they threshed their grain. This did not satisfy McKenny who became abusive and threatened to attack the wheat. Hat words ensued and Hamilton ordered him out of the house and started to put him out, when McKenny drew his revolver and shot twice, the second shot passing through Hamilton's heart, causing his death in a few minutes. McKenny gave himself up to the officers and is now in jail.

Omaha, Neb., 30.—This afternoon a young man named Frank Depeyter was drowned in the Missouri river, while bathing with some other boys.

Washington, 31.—Ten persons have been arrested in Covington County, Alabama, charged with beating and intimidating United States witnesses and destroying processes from the United States courts.

Victorio Wants to Surrender.

Denver, 31.—Tribune's Santa Fe: Advice received from the south state that a few scattered bands of Apaches are raiding ranches about sixty miles from El Paso. No murdering reported. Victorio's main band is still in Chisos Mountains. Mexican advice state that Victorio has requested of the Mexican government a meeting for treaty purposes with a surrender in view. The Mexican government would not grant it without consulting the United States government. This move of Victorio's indicates that the forces of New Mexico and Texas combined are too much for him, and knowing that the United States will accept nothing but an unconditional surrender, which would likely result in his death, he wishes to make a conditional surrender to the Mexicans, who cannot likely be accomplished, as Governor Terrance, who will have much influence in the matter, is a heavy loser by Victorio's raids.

Political.

Washington, 31.—Attorney General Devens is on the way to Canton, Ohio, to attend the soldiers reunion, to-morrow, at Muncie, Ind. He will deliver his first political address September 3d.

He also speaks at Indianapolis on the 4th, and at South Bend on the 6th. He will visit Minnesota state fair at Minneapolis on the 8th. Expects to return to Washington on the 12th.

Chicago, 31.—Inter-Ocean's Washington: Another letter was received from Commissioner Baum to-day. He reiterates his belief that Maine will go over 50,000 republican. It is under the reason the democrats have dropped the fight at that state, because they are short of money and did not propose to waste any in doubtful fields.

Concord, N. H., 31.—Mr. Morris declines the democratic nomination in the First District, for Congress.

Cite Commission.

Washington, 31.—A dispatch from Col. Macmahon, of the U. S. commission, dated Los Anos, 28th, says: The crisis in the U. S. has passed. Seventy Uncompaghe and White River head men and chiefs placed their hands under direction of the agent. They have accepted Supt. as chief, and have agreed to preserve Oquirrh's property intact, and to proceed immediately to complete the ratification and enrollment. You need have no fears; Agent Berry is equal to the emergency, and has confidence in the Ute at Los Anos and White River. They are anxious for peace.

Masks and Faces.

The features enameled by the famous Parisian artist were simply masked; the pores were closed and the face converted into a piece of animated porcelain. Such is not the effect of "GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP," which produces a complexion equally smooth and brilliant without the slightest possibility of an bad effects. See that "O. N. CHRISTENSEN, Proprietor," is printed on each packet, without which none is genuine. Sold by druggists at 25 cents, three cakes 60 cents. As a toilet accessory for both sexes, "HILL'S INSTANTANEOUS HAIR DYE" takes rank with the famous "GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP," and may be trusted to produce a perfect and permanent color where all other dyes have disappointed the purchaser; yet it is the least expensive of them all.

The Latest Fraud.

Chicago, 31.—Inter-Ocean's Washington: Chief Brooks, of the secret service, received information, to-day, of a new scheme for swindling in vogue in Mississippi. Some ingenious rascals have made photographs of greenbacks and circulated them in the back counties among the ignorant people as a new style of government checks. They discounted them, and then the parties who took them circulated them for a while until they found their way into the local bank. The fraud not being detected, they sent over $19,000 worth to the treasury for redemption, where the fraud was instantly discovered.

You Have No Excuse.

Have you any excuse for suffering with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint? Is there any reason why you should go on from day to day complaining with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Gnawing and Burning Pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and Disagreeable Taste in the Mouth, Coming Up of Food after eating, Low Spirits, etc.? Not if it is positively your own fault if you do not go to your Druggist and get a Bottle of GLENN'S AUGUR Flower. For 75 cents your cure is certain, but if you doubt this, get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you.

THE PEOPLE'S PAPER.

SALT LAKE

DAILY HERALD.

The remarkable success of the paper in the past, as manifested by its large and steadily growing subscription list, its increasing advertising patronage and the expressions of good-will towards the journal which greet us

from all quarters, convince the publishers that they are doing what they set out to do—namely, furnish a newspaper that the people would like,

and therefore support. The Herald,

as in the past, will be the people's paper. Independent in a political sense, it will always be found on the side of the people, out-spoken on questions affecting the rights of the masses; battling for local self-government and the largest liberty to individuals consistent with public good;

laboring for a pure, honest and economic administration of government;

treating public matters dispassionately and employing language calculated to enlighten the reason of men-

rather than influence their passions, and working for peace and the development of the resources of the ter-
